Circumvention Inquiry with Respect to the Republic of Korea and the Kingdom of Thailand: Extension of Preliminary and Final Determinations in Circumvention Inquiries

---

I. BACKGROUND

On July 18, 2022, the Department of Commerce (Commerce) published notice of its initiation of country-wide circumvention inquiries<sup>1</sup> to determine whether certain aluminum foil that is completed in the Republic of Korea and the Kingdom of Thailand using inputs from the People's Republic of China (China), are circumventing the antidumping (AD) and countervailing duty (CVD) orders on certain aluminum foil from China.<sup>2</sup> On December 1, 2022, we extended the deadlines for issuing the preliminary and final determinations in these inquiries by 75 days and 65 days, respectively.<sup>3</sup> The current deadline for the preliminary determinations is February 28, 2023, and that for final determinations is July 18, 2023.

II. EXTENSION OF TIME LIMIT FOR PRELIMINARY AND FINAL RESULTS

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.302(b), “{u}nless expressly precluded by statute, the Secretary may, for good cause, extend any time limit. . . .” Throughout this inquiry, Commerce has received (and responded to) a significant amount of comments from, and held meetings with, interested parties, importers, and members of Congress concerning the decision to initiate, the procedures for, and the potential implications of these inquiries.<sup>4</sup> Additionally, these inquiries pose numerous complex methodological issues which Commerce requires more time to analyze.

For the above-mentioned reasons and because these inquiries are extraordinarily complicated, additional time is required in order to issue the preliminary and final determinations in these
